

New Directions Program Information

Summer School

New Directions Learning Academy offers Summer School to currently enrolled Shawnee County high school students who need to take a course to keep current with their classes.

Check with your school counselor for the necessary paperwork to enroll.

Enrollment for Summer School sessions takes place in May. The courses are generally held half-days Monday – Thursday; with 1 session for four weeks in June and another, four weeks in July.

Availability is limited, so enroll early! Daily attendance is necessary to complete the course work on time. New Directions charges a fee of $130 and requires permission from parents and sponsoring schools.
